The Friends of the Herefordshire Light Infantry Museum

The Museum ...

based in the T.A. Centre in Harold St., Hereford, houses the regimental collections of Herefordshire's military units: the Hereford Regiment, the Hereford Rifle Volunteers and County Militia and the Herefordshire Light Infantry.

The Friends is a Society which aims to :

- ◆ help promote, support, assist and improve the museum
- ◆ create greater awareness of and interest in the museum and the history of its regiments.

The Society's income will be used to support the museum's work, including to help purchase new items, publish research material and support displays and exhibitions.

Benefits of membership ...

- ◆ free admission to the Museum
- ◆ invitations to previews and special Friends' events
- ◆ annual newsletter with details of recent acquisitions, new displays, research articles and museum information.
- ◆ discount on regimental items in the museum shop
