

The Camera Returns

This month's feature is the Officers Mess at Copthorne Barracks, Shrewsbury. The first picture is the Volunteer Service Company comprised of men from the Herefordshire and Shropshire Rifle Volunteer Corps, before their deployment to South Africa, as part of 2 KSLI to fight in the Boer War. The second picture was taken in 2004 - Copthorne barracks has since been disposed of by MOD and the mess demolished.

